What the student needed

MBA applications ask for a lot of paperwork, each university wants it differently, and the deadlines don't wait. The student needed someone to handle the documents and keep everything on time.

What we did

- Pratik and Nisha supported every application: Quinnipiac University in the US and two universities in Canada.
- Prepared everything the applications needed, document by document.
- Replied on time, every time. The student singled this out.

The result

Offer letters from Quinnipiac University (USA) and two Canadian universities.

> "They have been very resourceful and very helpful. They're on time with their responses, and they helped me throughout the application process and in getting offer letters from these universities."
> MBA applicant, in their own words
